Chapter 13

Holy Spirit

*“The fruit of the (Holy) Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance:
AGAINST SUCH THERE IS NO LAW”

The Holy Spirit is the name of God’s Spirit because “God is Spirit” and “He is holy”. “Holiness” connotes moral purity, which is completely satisfied by love. (This is why the Bible states “God IS Love”). Consequently, the “Holy Spirit” must be the “Spirit of Love”—or as we learned in the last chapter...the Spirit of Truth! Webster defines “Holy Spirit” as the active presence of God (love) in human life. The Bible also calls the “Holy Spirit” the “Holy Ghost” because it is invisible. But even though invisible, it is very, very real! For it is spirit, which means it affects one’s thoughts, desires, & emotions.

Jesus told Nicodemus, “Except a man be BORN AGAIN, he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). The phrase “born again” literally means “reborn, spiritually, of God’s Holy Spirit”. When this happens to a person, their spirit (heart)—thoughts, desires, & emotions—change. Jesus described the immaterial, infilling process of the Holy Spirit to Nicodemus as such: “The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and wither it goeth: so is every one that is BORN of the SPIRIT" (John 3:8). In other words, we cannot tell how the Holy Spirit enters (or leaves!) a soul, but we can tell when it is present in someone—just like we can hear the sound of the wind—because we can see its affects.

And what are the visible affects of the Holy Spirit having invaded someone's soul? Love, love, love!!! Friend, people with the Holy Spirit dwelling inside them cherish obeying the 10 Love Commandments. THAT is the change that occurs in their heart! John wrote: "little children, abide in him; that, when he (Jesus) shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that he (Holy Spirit) is righteous, ye know that every one that DOETH righteousness is BORN of him" (I John 2:28, 29). What does "doeth righteousness" mean? It means "obey the 10 Love Commandments"! THOSE thoughts and deeds manifesting in someone's life prove they have been "born again" of God's Holy Spirit: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is BORN of God, and knoweth God" (I John 4:7).

Subsequently, in searching our spirit (thoughts, desires, & emotions) it is easy to detect if we have been "born again" of God's Holy Spirit. If you have an overwhelming desire in your spirit to "obey the 10 Love Commandments," you are born again!!! If you are a business owner and you cringe at even the thought of lying (falsifying the books) on your taxes, your spirit is "born again". If you hate idolatry (love of money), your spirit is "born again". If a sense of dread envelopes your spirit when confronted with an adulterous (pornographic material) situation, your spirit is "born again"! If you feel a sickening feeling in your stomach when someone uses God's name in a derogatory manner, you are "born again". Do you understand? The change is in your heart (thoughts, desires, & emotions)! God's Holy Spirit will drive you to love (obey the 10 Love Commandments), which is to forsake evil: "We know that whosoever is BORN of GOD sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not" (I John 5:18).

Furthermore, since the Holy Spirit (Ghost) is spirit, it can form words in your spirit (mind) and speak them out your mouth! Jesus spoke about Israel's king David, who lived around 1,000 BC: "For David himself said by the Holy Ghost...” (Mark 12:36). Do you see? God’s Holy Spirit can speak through your lips! Jesus, knowing the persecution the Disciples would encounter after he left, comforted them by saying, “*But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no THOUGHT before hand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost” (Mark 13:11). The Old Testament prophets spoke under the unction of the Holy Ghost: “For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the HOLY GHOST” (II Peter 1:21).

Obviously, the “Holy Spirit” has always existed because it is God’s Spirit. John the Baptist received the Holy Ghost while yet in his mother’s womb: “For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the HOLY GHOST, even from his mother’s womb” (Luke 1:15). Wow! The Holy Ghost gave Simeon a wonderful message about the coming Messiah: “And it was revealed unto him by the HOLY GHOST, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord’s Christ” (Luke 2:26). Friend, it is the Holy Ghost that has revealed to me the things I have written in this book. I could have perused the Bible’s stories a thousand times over and never deciphered the true spiritual meaning behind the many details. The Biblical secrets I have disclosed in this book were given to me by the Holy Ghost to alert the world of Jesus Christ’s imminent return and to make-ready a holy people prepared to meet him. So please do not take this book’s message lightly!

The book of Acts is chocked-full of stories of the Holy Ghost being poured out on people in the most dramatic way! It appears a deeper power of the Holy Spirit was attainable to mankind after Jesus conquered Satan’s power over mankind’s spiritual death. The first believers to be baptized with the Holy Ghost began speaking in foreign languages they did not know! In other words, the Holy Ghost was literally controlling their heart and tongue: “And they were all filled with the HOLY GHOST, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance” (Acts 2:4). Wow!!! I know for an absolute fact the Holy Ghost still comes in this spectacular way, because it happened to me!!! Allow me to share my experience with you.

After my deceased father's shadowed profile appeared on my refrigerator door on May 6th, 2005, God immediately began dealing with me to correct certain obvious sins in my life. An inner voice inside of me desired I live right, and thankfully I continued to make all the right decisions! (Now at the time I did not realize my sins were ALL encompassed by the 10 Love Commandments, for God had not yet given me the revelation that ALL sin is based on "disobedience to the 10 Love Commandments".) But if you will remember from the Introduction, at the same time I was also ferociously researching everything I could get my hands on relating to God and His Bible—creationism, archaeology, astronomy, etc—and, amazingly, everywhere I turned I found evidence supporting the truth behind God's 7th day (sundown Friday to sundown Saturday) Sabbath. When I finally discovered time scholars profess the 7 day week is an unbroken cycle—traceable back to the time of Moses!—I was convinced of my sin. Simple, honest rational said, "Something sinister is behind the Sabbath day transfer, but now I know I can keep the Sabbath on the EXACT day of the week God intended it from Creation, the same day Jesus and all the prophets did": "And he (Jesus) came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day" (Luke 4:16). (Little did I know, God simply wanted me to obey His 4th Love Commandment, too!)

By this time, it was May 2006—only 1 year after God's dramatic visitation with me—and I had come a long way in aligning my life up to God's 10 Love Commandments (repenting by ridding my life of sin!), but now the final piece to the "righteousness-puzzle" was about to fall into place. Fully persuaded and extremely thrilled to honor and respect God's wishes by observing His Holy 7th day Sabbath, I anxiously awaited for the sky to turn dark on a Friday night. When it did, I turned off the lights in my apartment, lit a single red candle, and knelt down close to it on my living room floor. With butterflies in my stomach, I told God, "Here I am, Lord." The love and joy I felt in my heart towards God that night is beyond description, for I absolutely KNEW in my heart that I was doing something the Creator of the entire universe wanted me to DO. Then slowly, by the candle's light, I began reading in my Bible: "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth...” My joy has never ceased!

A Sabbath or so later, in June 2006, I was lying on the living room carpet on a Saturday morning listening to a preacher cassette in my karaoke tape deck. (Yep, the same tape deck, sitting in the same place, which played the Joe Diffie song the night dad’s profile appeared a year earlier!) Knowing the sermon was nearly finished, I got up to walk over to the tape deck to remove it. As I approached the karaoke box I was instantaneously arrested by an unseen force. It hit as quick as a lightning bolt! Immediately, my legs and feet felt like they weighed 100 pounds a piece and I remember thinking, “My God, I can’t move my feet!” I was rooted to the floor. Then, slowly, an invisible weight began increasing pressure on my shoulders until I was unable to withstand it. Still standing, but being bent forward from the waist, I wondered what was happening to my trembling body.

After what must have lasted 5 to 10 minutes, the powerful pressure gradually let up and I was able to stand up straight again. But I had to concentrate real hard to make my feet move, and eventually I was able to gingerly take a couple of steps back toward the center of my living room. Then, all of a sudden, my mouth burst forth in some African tribal sounding language! It poured out of my belly like a river’s flowing water. It was uncontrollable and unstoppable. Circling the living room floor with hands raised, I was now speaking in other tongues!!! Only then did I grasp what had happened to me, because I knew the story in the book of Acts...I had been baptized in the Holy Ghost!

From that day onward I could feel the change in my spirit (thoughts, desires, & emotions). I could literally feel LOVE inside of me! All the fruits (characteristics) of the Holy Spirit Paul listed in his letter to the Galatians were oozing out of me: “But the fruit of the (Holy) Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: AGAINST SUCH THERE IS NO LAW. And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts” (Galatians 5:22-24). I received a patience (longsuffering) never before imaginable: I could feel it inside me when driving in my car, for nothing anyone did in their car—e.g. slow driving in front of me, not moving when the light turned green, etc.—upset me anymore! Being single, I used to have moments of loneliness, but now I had only pure joy! I could write endlessly on the heart-transformation that occurred inside of me after the Holy Spirit possessed me, and yet I still could not accurately do it justice. But I know it is Love! Take note: the 9 “fruits” of the Holy Spirit manifested in the heart of someone “born again” are really just the personality traits of someone who keeps (obeys) God’s 10 Love Commandments—think about it!

Around 6 months later, I ran across Jesus’ words in the book of John and instantly knew WHY I had been baptized in the Holy Spirit: “If ye love me, keep my (10 Love) commandments. And I (Jesus) will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth... He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, AND WILL MANIFEST MYSELF TO HIM” (John 14:15-21). Wow, did you get that? Jesus said IF we willingly choose to keep his 10 Love Commandments—which is to love him—THEN he will personally ask God to give us the Holy Spirit!!! Do you see it? Friend, you ought to be shouting by now, for THERE is the Biblical key to receiving the Holy Ghost! Is that not awesome? If there ever was a motivating reason to obey ALL of the 10 Love Commandments, there it is!

Eventually I began to find other Bible verses supporting the correlation between “obeying the 10 Love Commandments” and “receiving the Holy Ghost”. Not long after Jesus’ ascension, the Apostle Peter identified the connection while speaking the truth boldly to the high priest and council in Jerusalem,: “We are his (Jesus) witnesses of these things; and so is also the HOLY GHOST, whom God hath given to them that OBEY him” (Acts 5:32). Do you see? Friend, it does not get any clearer! God gives his Holy Spirit to whom? To those that obey him! Obey what? The 10 Love Commandments, just like Jesus said to DO.

The first martyr, Stephen, made the connection, for he understood perfectly well “disobeying the 10 Love Commandments” is actually “resisting the Holy Ghost”—which is exactly what many of the Pharisees were doing! See, you can be extremely religious, go to church every time the doors are open, and know every name and date in the Bible, but if you refuse to quit sinning, you are REJECTING the Holy Spirit and the “born again” process! The reason the Pharisees hated Jesus so much was because he continually called them out on their “disobedience to the 10 Love Commandments”—e.g. pride, love of money, adultery, thievery, etc. They were so sure they were God’s children because they were pious and religious, yet they did not know God (Love) ! With a face glowing full of the Holy Ghost, Stephen fatally called them out on their wickedness one last time: “*Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always RESIST the HOLY GHOST... Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have NOT KEPT IT” (Acts 7:51, 53). Do you see? HOW were they resisting the Holy Ghost? By NOT keeping the 10 Love Commandment Law of God given to them by Moses!!! Friend, could it be any more apparent? If you want to be “born again” of the Holy Ghost, OBEY God’s 10 Love Commandments and Jesus will ask the Father to send it to you air mail express! But if you continue making excuses to justify your “disobeying of the 10 Love Commandments”... YOU are resisting the Holy Ghost’s (God’s Spirit of Love’s) desire to come into your heart.

Inflamed at Stephen’s words, the Pharisees (church leaders) went wild in a demonic rage and ran upon him, stoning him to death: “When they heard these things, they were CUT to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth...and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord...and stoned him” (Acts 7:54-58). But even at the point of death, the Holy Ghost (Love) was glowing like the noon day sun on Stephen’s face as he cried out, “Lord, lay not this sin to their charge” (Acts 7:60). Wow, what kind of a “spirit in a man” can love like THAT while men are busting open his head with rocks? Friend, ONLY one full of the Holy Ghost!!! The “Holy Spirit” is pure love, and when it is inside of you it is impossible to conceal, for it will flow out of your heart like rivers of living water.

Lastly, in absolute definitive proof of the link between “keeping the 10 Love Commandments” and “receiving the Holy Spirit,” is the meaning behind and fulfillment of God’s 4th Feast day which He instituted with the Israelites in the wilderness. (Remember the first 3 Feasts—Passover, Unleavened Bread, & First Fruits—were all fulfilled by Jesus the week he died.) Well, the 4th Feast was called the “Feast of Weeks” and God instituted it with the Israelites in the wilderness to commemorate, yearly, the day He gathered them around the base of Mount Sinai and boomingly spoke the 10 Love Commandments to them. THAT day was 50 days after the “Feast of First Fruits”, which occurred during Passover week. The fulfillment of this Feast came the year of Jesus’ death—mankind’s 4,000th year—when exactly 50 days after Christ’s resurrection around 120 believers were gathered in an Upper Room, praying, and the Holy Ghost descended on them in flames of fire, filling them all with the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in other tongues! In other words, the Holy Spirit was given on the SAME (yearly) day that God had given (spoke) the 10 Love Commandments! Do you see the link? Friend, the events are intimately connected: “obeying the 10 Love Commandments” is the path to receiving the Holy Ghost!

Let us take a closer look at God’s 4th Feast: In the wilderness, 1334 BC, God instructed Moses on WHEN to keep the Feast of Weeks: “And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering (First Fruits); seven sabbaths shall be complete: Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number FIFTY DAYS; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD” (Leviticus 23:15, 16). In other words, the “Feast of Weeks” was celebrated 50 days after the “Feast of First Fruits”. The Greeks renamed the “Feast of Weeks” to “Pentecost” because that means “fifty”. That name has stuck, and today Christians still refer to the Feast of Weeks as “Pentecost”, but it is really God’s 4th special Feast He instituted with Israel, commemorating the giving of the moral Law (the 10 Love Commandments) and eventually the Holy Ghost [See Figure #5, page 182].

Let us now delve, intelligently, into the Biblically recorded action immediately following the Israelites exodus out of Egypt on the night of Passover, the 14th of Nissan. Pharaoh’s army drowned in the Red Sea most likely 7 days later on the 21st of Nissan, which was the last day of God’s “Feast of Unleavened Bread”. Three days after the “Red Sea incident” the Israelites were desperate for water: “So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea...and they went THREE days in the wilderness, and found no water” (Exodus 15:22). So God provided water for them that day by sweetening bitter water they later found and said to them: “If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt DO that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments...” (Exodus 15:26). Now how could God ask the Israelites to “DO that which is right in His sight and give ear to his Commandments” when they still had not reached Mount Sinai and received the 10 Love Commandments? Friend, this is just more proof the Israelites ALREADY knew (and ALL mankind had/had ALWAYS known) God’s 10 Love Commandments. (Remember, Abraham kept them all over 600 years earlier!)

But what happened next positively verifies mankind even knew about God’s 4th Love Commandment (Keep the 7th day Sabbath Holy) before God officially spoke and wrote the 10 Love Commandments on stone. Listen, within one month after leaving Egypt the Israelites had run out of food provisions, and they were hungry: “And they took their journey...and all the congregation...of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin...on the FIFTEENTH DAY of the SECOND MONTH after their departing out of the land of Egypt. And the whole congregation...murmured against Moses...ye have brought us forth into the wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger” (Exodus 16:1-3). So it is now only (exactly) 1 lunar month after the night they escaped Egypt; it was here and now that God began supernaturally feeding the Israelites with “manna from heaven”—which He would continue to do for their entire 40 year wilderness journey!

But watch, God told the Israelites to gather enough manna for 2 days on the 6th day of the week because there would be no manna on the ground during the 7th day Sabbath: “Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none” (Exodus 16:26). Now wait a minute, the Israelites still have NOT reached Mount Sinai—where God will thunderously speak the 10 Love Commandments to them! So this “7th day Sabbath thing” should have confused the Israelites, right? No!!! I told you mankind had/had always known about God’s 7 day week and 7th day Sabbath—even since Creation! But unfortunately, some Israelites went out to collect manna on the Sabbath: “And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none” (Exodus 16:27). God was extremely disappointed: *“And the LORD said unto Moses, How long REFUSE ye to keep my commandments and my laws” (Exodus 16:28). See, the Israelites STILL had NOT reached Mount Sinai, yet God inquired of them again why they would NOT obey His laws!

Finally, in the 3rd month after leaving Egypt, the Israelites reached Mount Sinai: “In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt...they...were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount” (Exodus 19:1, 2). It was here and now that God descended on Mount Sinai in a thick cloud with thunder, lightning, and fire, making the mountain tremble while speaking the 10 Love Commandments! The Jews today celebrate this as having occurred on the 50th day after exiting Egypt on the 14th day of the 1st month of Nissan—do the math. Thus, God’s “giving of the 10 Love Commandment Law day” in the wilderness was to be the same day He would and did “give the Holy Ghost (Spirit of Truth) to the believers in the Upper Room! No wonder Jesus declared, “If ye love me, KEEP MY COMMANDMENTS. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth”” (John 14:15-21). Friend, the two concepts—“receiving (obeying) the 10 Love Commandments” & “receiving the Holy Spirit”—are intrinsically linked, for the two amazing events happened on the same day of the Jewish year!

The church today desperately needs to get back to some old fashioned, sin-fleeing, 10-Love-Commandment keeping, Law of Love abiding preaching. Friend, God is testing each and every one of us! He is proving whether you will walk in His laws or not. I can picture Jesus turning to the Father God and saying, “Do you see Gabriel down there Father? Look at him keeping our Holy 7th day Sabbath! In a world that now predominately believes ‘obeying our 10 Love Commandments’ is worthless, he has received the truth and loves us enough to keep ALL of our 10 Love Commandments. Let’s send him a gift, Father, and fill him with the Holy Ghost!” (By the way, at the time I was filled with the Holy Ghost in June of 2006 I knew NOTHING about God’s 7 Holy Feasts, but when I did learn about them, one day it hit me in 2008 that I must have been filled with the Holy Ghost around the time of Pentecost! So I looked up online the day of Pentecost in 2006 and found it occurred on Saturday June 3rd of 2006! Searching in my diary for the exact Saturday in June that I was filled with the Holy Ghost I noticed I did not log it. But other factors—too involved to mention—lead me to believe (around 99% sure) that June 3rd was the very day of my infilling! Yes, friend, I believe I was filled with Holy Ghost on the very day of Pentecost, only a few weeks after making the decision to obey God’s 4th Love Commandment, and did not even know it at the time!!!) Listen, do yourself a huge favor and please take the time to research and learn HOW God’s Holy 7th day Sabbath got switched to the 1st day of the week and who did it. Here is your Biblical clue: “And he (Satan) shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change TIMES and LAWS” (Daniel 7:25).

Friend, Satan detests God’s 10 Love Commandment Law because he knows our obedience to IT will ensure us eternal life in God’s Kingdom. Therefore, Satan continually tries to change them, hide them, and tear them off walls. Do you want to enrage Satan? Just determine in your heart, “Satan, I will no longer listen to and believe your lies that God’s 10 Love Commandments are obsolete!” Then, start obeying ALL of the 10 Love Commandments, devotedly. It would be horrifying to Lucifer to find the whole world “repented of sin” and turned back to keeping God’s true 7th day Sabbath—ignoring the “time” he worked so hard to change—for Satan knows God’s promise of blessing to those who “delight themselves in the Lord” by keeping His 7th day Sabbath Holy. He also knows God will fill everyone with the Holy Spirit, if they will only repent of sin by willingly choosing to obey His 10 Love Commandments. And THAT is, truly, Satan’s worst nightmare...a world full of people that love!!!
